Alan Armstrong, Senior Class President 1972-1973

At last year's graduation, Alan Armstrong accepted the cane and chain, symbols of the Senior Class.

Alan's first responsibility as president was to plan the Junior Prom. He also selected the class motto and will plan the Senior Prom.

Alan has been an active member of Student Council since junior high. He has attended several Student Council conventions and is a member of the Executive Board of Student Council. Alan's other activities include Thespians, A.F.S., and National Honor Society.

Alan feels "in youth we learn, in age we understand."

Dick Stephens, Student Council President

Last year Dick Stephens was elected by the students to be Student Council President for 1972-73.

Dick has been on Student Council since ninth grade and proved to be a valuable leader from the start. He is also on the Redbird Ward Staff, was a Powder Puff Coach, and Chairman of the Grievance Committee.

Dick Stephens remarked, "I hope this year Student Council marked a change in its purpose from social activities to social problems."

Bausch And Lomb

The Bausch and Lomb Award will be presented to Pat Angel at this year's graduation. Pat was chosen by the Science Department as the student achieving the best record in study of science.

She is now eligible to compete for one of several scholarships awarded at the University of Rochester.

Congratulations to Patty!

Rensselaer Award

This year's winner of the Rensselaer award is Tim McElroy. Each year this award is presented by the Mathematics Department to a junior with the highest average and interest in science and mathematics.

Tim is now eligible to apply for the Rensselaer Mathematics and Science Award Scholarships.

Congratulations to Tim!

D.A.R.

Each year, the Daughters of the American Revolution sponsor the Good Citizen's Award. The award is given to one girl and one boy of the Senior Class who possess outstanding qualities of leadership, patriotism, service, and dependability.

This year's winners are Becky Blair and Steve Shust. The society feels that tribute should be paid to these youths and attention called to those qualities which are desirable in good citizens. Congratulations to Becky and Steve!

*Yoshiko Asaka
Our A.F.S. Student From Japan*

This year Alton High is proud to welcome Yoshiko Asaka as our A.F.S. student from Kyoto, Japan. During her stay in the United States, Yoko, or Sam (her American nickname), is living with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Estebro.

At Alton High, Yoko is studying Psychology, United States History, Music Appreciation, C.P. English, and Spanish, her favorite subject and probably college major. She is most impressed with the friendliness of Americans, especially the students of Alton High.

Yoko also enjoys American food, especially orange juice, something new to her since her arrival to the United States. Among her other American favorites are Robert Wagner, "Three Dog Night," and "Chicago."

One of Yoko's favorite pastimes is playing the piano, a talent which she has been developing since the age of four. She also loves watching basketball games and playing ping pong.

The students of Alton High hope that Yoko has had an enjoyable year with many memories and will visit us again in the future.

Yoko and her American family

Yoko never liked dogs until she came to America.

Yoko enjoys the Christmas tradition.

Sam — our defensive back in the Powder Puff.

Yaka gets advice from Mr. Callahan, her counselor.

Yaka isn't always the model student!!

Yoko brings a part of Japan with her.

Teacher, teacher, I declare, I see someone's underwear.

Haven't you guys heard? They've got locker rooms inside.

Da you guys see my mouthpiece anyplace?

Today's program is sponsored by letter M.

Wow! What a centerfold!

You're just picking on me 'cause I'm a sophomore!

All right! Who ate my lunch?

"Wan't you please marry me?" "Well, let me finish my lunch first."

Who said the North Pole was barren?

But Coach, it says right there Tab A goes into slot B.

Where'd that cotton-pickin' bug go?

Come on, let me have just one more french fry.

Just a little bit farther.

I saw you put that frog in m milk carton, now get it out!

But, I didn't mean to blow out the plumbing!

Boy, I sure hope he did these right!

Your popcorn or your life!

Chicagol Chicagol Da Da-Da-Da Da Da!

Look out, Jack Nicklaus!

There's room enough for you to sit down right here, handsome.

ZORO!

I tell you! We won that point!

Coffee, tea, or me???

Ice!!

Geel And Mr. Bonyng was such a nice guy too.

According to my calculations I should be able to get 3,733,333 toothpicks.

What do you think of this smile?

I'll let you have it for only fifty cents.

You didn't really eat that, did you?

Boy, I can't wait to show Mrs. Watkins this cheer!

You're fired! Oh rats!!

The battle of Snowball Hill.

I finally found a good use for these cafeteria trays.

Darn cafeteria trays!

Editor's Message

To the student body of Altan Senior High School:

On these 288 pages, we have attempted to keep up the tradition of excellence in producing this 1972—1973 TATLER. We have tried to make this TATLER the best book possible and to put into it what you, the student body, want to see. Whether we have succeeded or not is up to the individual. However, the TATLER Staff does believe it has succeeded in capturing for the future some of the memories of the school year. If we have done this, our goal has been attained.

I wish to thank the entire staff for a job well done. Special recognition must be given to Janice Bechtold and Sara Massey, my two co-editors who certainly did a tremendous job of keeping the production of the TATLER in order. Special thanks should also be given to Mr. Livengood, our advisor. Without him, this TATLER probably could not be made up to standards.

We dedicate this book to the school and to tradition.

All right, how many want to buy escalator passes?

No one's going to tell me to jump in that sand!

Why don't you guys wise up and quit eating lunch too! Look at all the money I've saved!

I can't believe I ate the whole thing!

Oh,
my aching back!

Ahhh, you sneezed on my doughnut!

LASSIE, go home!

Gee fellows, I didn't use my anti-perspirant today and I may not tomorrow!

What's up doc?

Are you sure he's not married?

Get that gum out of your mouth!

He shouldn't have left it out in the aisle. Someone might step on it!

He's going to have to quit wearing those short pants!

PUPPY LOVE!

Pssst! Hurry up and pass me those answers!

"A Night in Dodge City"

The evening began with couples exchanging their Junior Prom tickets for wooden nickels which could be spent at the gambling tables or taken home as souvenirs. The old covered wagon at one end of the room and the colorful paper saloon girls lining the walls made the cafeteria appear to have been relocated somewhere in the Old West.

Master of Ceremonies, Alan Armstrong, announced our Dream Girl and her court. Miss Debi Andrew was escorted by Rabin Fiedler; Miss Debbie Bailey was escorted by Rob Forbes; Miss Nancy Bawer was escorted by Bob Barnes; Miss Christy McAfaas was escorted by Greg Meyers; Miss Daris Sayles was escorted by Paul Willis; Miss Peggy Spinks was escorted by Joe Cline; Miss Terri Tinsley was escorted by Rager Chamberlain; Miss Danna Waters was escorted by Jim Schneider, and our Dream Girl of 1973, Miss Suzie Dick, was escorted to her throne by Doug Wohlerl.

Baseball

Finishing second in the state tournament, last year's baseball team advanced as far as any baseball team in Altan's history, equaling the 1951 performance. The state championship was decided by one run in an extra inning game, with Niles West taking the title. Altan High School wishes to congratulate coaches Wayne Tyler and Felix Macios and the fine baseball team on a great showing.

Altan had a successful regular season, finishing second in Southwestern Conference play. Kevin Mueller and Bob Meyers led the team in batting at .333 and .321 respectively.

The Redbirds turned it on at tournament time when it really counted. At the District, Altan defeated Wood River 5-1 behind the pitching of Mark Case. In the District finals, pitcher Jim Weiss overcame Roxono 5-3. In Regional play, the pitching duo of Case and Weiss set down Cahokia 14-6 and powerhouse Granite City 8-3 in the finals.

Moving on to the Sectional of Springfield, Altan beat Highland 7-0 with Case pitching. Jim Weiss pitched Altan to victory over Springfield 4-3 in the Sectional final.

The state finals were held in Peoria. In the first game, the Redbirds defeated Putnam County 7-3, with Jim Weiss gaining the win. The semi-final game saw sophomore pitcher Joy Wornlich demolish Konkakee 5-4. In the state final game, Altan faced Niles West. Pitcher Bob Hansberry, who had been filling in at shortstop for the previous six weeks, came on strong to pitch eight fine innings. The Redbirds were ousted in the second extra inning, the final being Niles West 4-3.

Kim Shearburn and Mike Rainier were selected for the state final tournament All Star team. Rainier also set a new tournament record of three triples.
